Decision Notice

Decision 10/2026: Department of Child and Family Services

Failure to decide: noncompliance with section 43

Review reference no.: 2026017
Decision date: 12 June 2026

Summary

On 10 December 2025, the Applicant asked the Department of Child and Family Services (Department) for accreditation and decision-making records. The Applicant subsequently asked the Department for an internal review of its decision on the request. The Investigative Counsel[1] has found that the Department failed to comply with all requirements for an internal review within the six-week statutory timeframe set by section 43(2) of the Public Access to Information Act 2010.

The Investigative Counsel has ordered the Department to comply with its section 43 obligations within 10 working days of the issuance of this Decision.

Background and investigation

1. This Decision is for a 'failure to decide' application for an external review by the Information Commissioner under Part 6 of the Public Access to Information (PATI) Act 2010.[2] This Decision by the Investigative Counsel addresses a public authority's basic obligation to complete an internal review and notify the requester of its decision within the six-week statutory timeframe, not whether a public authority has properly denied access to a record.

2. On 10 December 2025, the Applicant made a written PATI request to the Department of Child and Family Services (Department) for accreditation and decision-making records.

3. On 16 December 2025, the Department acknowledged the Applicant's PATI request.

4. On 20 January 2026, the Department extended the six-week period for providing its initial decision to 3 March 2026.

5. On 3 March 2026, the Applicant requested a status update from the Department.

6. On 4 March 2026, the Department issued an initial decision to the Applicant.

7. On 18 March 2026, the Applicant made a timely request for the Head of Public Authority for the Department to conduct an internal review of the Department's initial decision. The six-week internal review deadline was 29 April 2026.

[1] The Investigative Counsel issues this Decision under delegated authority from the Information Commissioner, per section 52A of the PATI Act. For more details, a schedule of delegation is available on ico.bm.

[2] The procedure for this external review follows a Summary Procedure for 'failure to decide' reviews, published March 2026.

8. On 5 May 2026, the Applicant requested that the Information Commissioner conduct a review of the Department's failure to decide within the six-week statutory time limit.

9. The application for the Information Commissioner's review was assessed as valid, as it met the criteria in section 45(1)(b) of the PATI Act.

10. The Investigative Counsel decided not to attempt to resolve the matter under section 46 of the PATI Act, because an internal review decision with full reason from the head of a public authority is required before a requester can seek an external review by the Information Commissioner under section 45(1)(a). A section 45(1)(a) review considers the substance of the authority's final decision, including exemptions, search efforts or administrative denial, etc.

11. A review was commenced under section 47 of the PATI Act, by notice to each party on 8 May 2026.

12. As required by section 47(4) of the PATI Act, the Department was invited to make representations, by answering standard investigation questions. The Office of Information Commissioner's (ICO) investigation questions addressed whether the Department had, in fact, met its statutory obligations for an internal review within the statutory timeframe set out in section 43 of the PATI Act. At the same time, the ICO strongly encouraged the Head of Public Authority to issue its decision to the Applicant, if they had not already done so, to meet the requirements of section 43 before the deadline of 15 May 2026.

13. The ICO did not receive written submissions from the Head of Public Authority for the Department on 15 May 2026.

14. The Applicant was also invited to make representations, if they wished to do so. The Applicant did not make any representations but relied on the information provided in their application for this Review.

Analysis and findings

Internal review – section 43

15. Section 43 of the PATI Act requires the head of a public authority to conduct an internal review[3] of any decision made by the authority with respect to a PATI request or of any failure by the authority to take any action that it is required to take under the PATI Act:

[3] Section 41 of the PATI Act sets out the scope of an internal review. Section 42 sets the time limit to apply for an internal review.

Conduct of review

43 (1) An internal review of a decision by a public authority, other than a decision made by the head of a public authority, shall be conducted by the head of the public authority concerned.

(2) The head of the public authority shall within six weeks after receiving an application for an internal review with respect to a request—

(a) complete the review and make a decision with regard to the review; and

(b) notify the requester and any third party concerned of—

(i) the decision and the reasons for the decision; and

(ii) the right of the requester or third party, as the case may be, to apply to the Commissioner for a review of the decision under Part 6.

[emphasis added]

16. To fully comply with section 43(2), the head of a public authority must satisfy all the statutory obligations within six weeks of receiving a request for an internal review.

Discussion

17. The Applicant asserted in their application that, during a telephone conversation with the Head of Public Authority on 30 March 2026, the Head of Public Authority confirmed receipt of the request for an internal review and advised that a written response would be provided.

18. The Head of Public Authority and the Department's Information Officer were notified of this Review by the ICO on 8 May 2026 and were invited to make representations to support if they had, in fact, commenced or completed their internal review as required by section 43(2). It is a matter of fact that the ICO's registered email notice was effectively delivered and opened by the Department.

19. The burden of establishing compliance with section 43(2), on the balance of probabilities, rested with the Head of Public Authority. As no factual evidence was provided by the Head of Public Authority, the Investigative Counsel accepts the Applicant's assertion that the Department knew of the Applicant's internal review request and failed to issue an internal review decision.

20. Based on these facts, it is determined that the Department did not fully comply with section 43(2) because it had not completed a review, had not notified the Applicant of the decision, the reasons for the decision and of the Applicant's right to seek an external review by the Information Commissioner, by 29 April 2026. That date being six weeks after the Department received the Applicant's request for an internal review.

21. By the Order attached to this Decision, the Department is now ordered to satisfy all outstanding obligations, including to complete its review and notify the Applicant of the internal review decision, the reasons for the decision, and the Applicant's right to seek an external review by the Information Commissioner.

Decision

The Investigative Counsel finds that the Department of Child and Family Services (Department) failed to comply with all requirements for an internal review within the six-week statutory deadline set by section 43(2) of the Public Access to Information Act 2010.

As set forth in the accompanying Order, the Investigative Counsel orders the Department to complete its review and notify the Applicant of its internal review decision, the reasons for the decision and of their right to apply to the Information Commissioner for a review of that decision, with a copy to the Office of Information Commissioner, by Monday, 29 June 2026.

Judicial review

The Applicant, the Department of Child and Family Services or any other person aggrieved by this Decision have the right to apply to the Supreme Court for review of this Decision, in accordance with section 49 of the PATI Act. Any such application must be made within six months of this Decision.

Enforcement

This Decision has been filed with the Supreme Court, according to section 48(3) of the PATI Act. If the Department of Child and Family Services fails to comply with this Decision, the Information Commissioner has the authority to pursue enforcement in the same manner as an order of the Supreme Court.
